Dear Mr. Chairman:

(U) This letter is in response to letters of 20 and 24 April 2009 from Representative Hoekstra to the Director of National Intelligence requesting a full, complete, and correct list of the dates, locations, and names of all members of Congress who attended briefings with respect to the use of enhanced interrogation techniques (EITs) by the CIA, and similar letters from Senator John Ensign and Representative Mike Thompson, dated 28 and 29 April, respectively. In response to these requests, the Office of Congressional Affairs (OCA) has completed an extensive review of its electronic and hardcopy files, and reached out to other components for any documentation they may have. Enclosed please find a list containing the information requested.

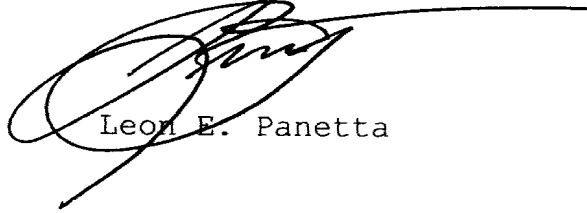

(U//FOUO) This letter presents the most thorough information we have on dates, locations, and names of all Members of Congress who were briefed by the CIA on enhanced interrogation techniques. This information, however, is drawn from the past files of the CIA and represents MFRs completed at the time and notes that summarized the best recollections of those individuals. In the end, you and the Committee will have to determine whether this information is an accurate summary of what actually happened. We can make the MFRs available at CIA for staff review.

(U//FOUO) We informed Senator Ensign that we have provided this information to the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, CIA's traditional oversight committee in the Senate. An
